HEERF III emergency financial aid grants continued to be awarded during the Summer and Fall of 2022 and Spring of 2023. Per federal guidelines, only students enrolled at TCNJ after March 2020 could apply for these funds and Title IV eligibility was no longer a requirement to apply.

An online application was created, accessible to students by using their PAWS email and password. The online application asked students if they were facing financial challenges due to an eligible COVID condition. The seven COVID conditions were as follows: income loss/decrease, food insecurity, housing insecurity, childcare expenses, health care expenses, educational material costs and/or an extenuating circumstance. Each one of these conditions was assigned a monetary value ranging from a minimum of $500 dollars to a maximum of $1,000. Students could answer yes to one or multiple questions depending on their individual circumstance but awards were capped at $5,000 maximum. Students were given an option to receive a payment or have any grant awards credited to their TCNJ student account balance. The application was open for approximately six weeks. Once the application closed, award eligibility was determined and payments or credits were distributed.

Requirement: Any instructions, directions, or guidance provided by the institution to students concerning the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.
